

Media Liability Program for Magazine Publishers

Sponsored by Magazine Publishers of America (MPA)

Coverage Features:

- Libel, slander, invasion of privacy, copyright infringement and plagiarism
- Punitive damages covered, where permitted by law
- Personal injury coverage for news gathering activities
- Independent contractors included as additional insureds
- Legal costs covered for injunctive relief suits
- Worldwide coverage territory

Optional Coverage Features:

- Errors and omissions arising out of literary or artistic content of published material; may also include coverage for bodily injury, property damage and defective advice
- Supplemental personal injury for claims related to non-publishing activities
- Coverage for on-line publications
- Coverage for free lance writers, stringers, artists or any correspondent

Why MPA Members Should Choose Media/Professional Insurance:

- MPA members are eligible for preferred rates
- M/PI is the world's leading provider of media liability insurance
- M/PI's experienced underwriting staff can design coverage for unique situations
- M/PI's knowledgeable claims attorneys supervise the litigation process, which can result in considerable savings for the insured
- Coverage underwritten by National Casualty Company, a Nationwide® company

For more information, visit us on the Web at www.mediaprof.com or contact:

Angela Boykin - Underwriting Account Manager
816-292-7287
angela.boykin@mediaprof.com

Media/Professional Insurance

A division of Financial & Professional Risk Solutions, Inc.
2300 Main Street, Suite 800
Kansas City, Missouri 64108-2404
Telephone: 816-471-6118 Facsimile: 816-471-6119
Email: marketing@mediaprof.com
Web Site: www.mediaprof.com

We Insure Free Speech Worldwide®

This fact sheet is intended only to provide a quick review of program features.
It does not amend or extend an actual policy, which is the controlling insurance document.